

PTE Writing Practice Test 15

Summarize Written Text

Read the passage below and summarize it using one sentence. Type your response in the box at the bottom of the screen. You have 10 minutes to finish this task. Your response will be judged on the quality of your writing and on how well your response presents the key points in the passage.

As we journey to Australia, we witness how its beauty and opportunities attract many migrants from far and wide. Its strong and prosperous economy, diverse society, and stunning landscapes make it a dream destination for those seeking a better life.

To fulfil their aspirations, many people apply for the coveted Australia PR Visa, which allows them to enter and reside in this wondrous land for good. These visas come in various forms, such as skilled work and family visas, and each has unique eligibility requirements. But, to enjoy the privileges of these visas, applicants must meet the requirements and pass the stringent visa application process.

Moreover, being a permanent resident doesn't automatically guarantee re-entry into Australia after leaving the country. However, most permanent residents can apply for Australian citizenship after living in the country for four years, with at least 12 months spent as permanent residents.

Australia's appeal as a destination of opportunity and a better life has become a reality for many. But, to truly call it their home, migrants must fulfill the requirements and embrace the country's culture and way of life.

Write an Essay

You will have 20 minutes to plan, write, and revise an essay about the topic below.

Your response will be judged on how well you develop a position, organize your ideas, present supporting details, and control the elements of standard written English. You should write 200–300 words.

“All children should learn to play a range of different sports while they are at school. How far do you agree with this statement? Support your point of view with reasons and examples from your own experience.”
